ISLAND OF CORFU IS BOMBARDED BY ITALIANS

FIFTEEN GREEK CITIZENS INCLUDING WOMEN ARE KILLED IN THE ATTACK

Fall of the Present Greek Government Appeared Imminent Today Under Pressure of Occupation of Islands of Corfu and Samos by Italians

Greek Foreign Office Notified Italy Will Continue its Occupation of Corfu Until Greece Has Met All Conditions of Ultimatum Delivered

Athens, Sept. 1.—The fall of the present Greek government appeared imminent today under pressure of occupation of Corfu and the killing of 15 Greek citizens by Italian shellfire. Former Premier Zamif is expected to be asked to form a new government.

Women Killed by Shell Fire

The Greek public is wildly excited over the bombardment of Corfu. Several women were included among those killed by Italian shell fire. They had taken refuge in the police station when the bombardment opened. A shell then hit the police station, killing and wounding many in the building.

Corfu Forts Dismantled

The Italian naval commander has been informed that the Corfu forts were dismantled and occupied only by refugees and orphans, but despite this he started a bombardment of the town, it was announced here today.

Meantime Italian Ambassador Montag notified the Greek foreign office that Italian occupation of Corfu will continue until Greece has met all the conditions of the ultimatum delivered by Premier Mussolini.

It is reported that Italy plans to deport all Greeks from Corfu, transporting them to Italy.

The cabinet met with Premier Gonatis today, going over the situation in detail. The premier declared that he would not reply to Italy's second note delivered yesterday but would comply with any decision that might be rendered by the League of Nations.

It is understood the Greek protest forwarded to the League at Geneva, declares that the Corfu bombardment was in complete violation of international law.

A separate protest has also been forwarded to the Allied governments. The internal situation meanwhile is growing increasingly serious. The drachma fell heavily today, creating a near-panic in the banks.

The Greek troops which were stationed at the Corfu fortress have been withdrawn to the interior.

The prefect and commanding officers who remained in the fort were arrested by the Italians.

Airplanes Used in Attack

The detailed story of the bombardment and occupation of Corfu under fire from Italian warships while a squadron of airplanes circled the city with machine guns sputtering aroused fresh indignation and resentment in Athens.

At three o'clock yesterday the captain of one of the warships came ashore. He informed the prefect that a division of the Italian fleet was blockading the island, and that he proposed to peacefully occupy the town at four o'clock. Several warships entered the harbor soon afterwards. The commander demanded that the town surrender and hoist the white flag. This was done, and the white flag was later taken down and replaced by the Italian tricolor.

Before the prefect, however, was able to obtain instructions from Athens, Italian troops began to disembark from the warships. Their landing was covered by continuous fire from the warships. The fire was directed over the town. The police station was hit and set on fire. The airplanes continued to circle over the town, and are believed to have joined in the fire.

Admiral Bellini assumed command of the town after the occupation was completed.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS TO TAKE UP SITUATION

Geneva, Sept. 1.—The League of Nations will take up the Greco-Italian situation today. The Greek demand for intervention by the league was received at league headquarters before the opening of the morning session, and the assembled representatives of the various powers were immediately informed that the most serious problem with which the league has had to deal would be presented later in the day.

155,000 MEN IN THE HARD COAL FIELD LEAVE THEIR JOBS

GROWING DISSATISFACTION AMONG MINERS' AND OPERATORS' REPRESENTATIVES

JOINT PARLEY BETWEEN OPERATORS AND MINERS ADJOURNED UNTIL WEDNESDAY

(By United Press) Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 1.—A growing feeling of dissatisfaction among miners and operators representatives here today was evidenced as 155,000 men in the anthracite coal district left their job after the conference with Governor Pinchot.

The governor went into conference with miners' and operators' representatives today in an effort to find some way for a resumption of operations.

Word reaching union headquarters as the conference opened indicated that the strike of 155,000 workers is completely effective.

The joint parley between operators and miners adjourned today until Wednesday.

The action is known to have been taken at the request of both sides.

The miners felt some progress was made in the five hours negotiations yesterday. The operators stated they would accept no compromise which will embarrass the position they took at the beginning of negotiations at Atlantic City a week ago.

The miners do not appear reluctant to resume the negotiations, in fact they invite them.

The miners hold to the opinion that if an agreement is made on the basis suggested by the governor they will have conceded most of the points for which they have fought during the weeks of negotiations.

RUM RUNNING AUTO USES SMOKE SCREEN

Washington, Sept. 1.—A rum running automobile, equipped with a highly efficient apparatus for throwing out a smoke screen to blind pursuers, was captured by two motorcycle policemen after a thrilling chase through Washington streets.

Racing at a speed of 75 miles an hour through the nauseating black smoke thrown out by the automobile, the motor policemen won the chase when the tank used in making the screen became exhausted. As they drew up on the fleeing rum car, the occupants leaped out and tried to run to cover but the police captured a man who gave his name as Bernard Ransome. They expect to make other arrests.

Hibbing, Sept. 1.—St. Louis county's fair opened here today, and continues on Sept. 2 and 3.

Duluth day at the fair this year promises to be a real day. The Duluth Chamber of Commerce has arranged for a booster delegation, composed of men from all walks of life.

Ten bands will participate in the band convention at the fair grounds. A warning has been issued to all concession owners that under no conditions will any flam-flam games, confidence operations or sharpers be allowed.

Some of the finest attractions ever appearing at a county fair have been secured. There are seven big free acts.

ALLEGED GANG OF AUTO THIEVES

BELIEVED OPERATING IN TWO DAKOTAS AND MINNESOTA

Moorhead, Minn., Sept. 1.—Roderick Felix, deputy sheriff from Little Falls, left here this morning with Ted Grist, alleged auto thief, in custody.

Grist, it is said, has confessed to stealing autos. He is believed to be a member of a strong organized gang which has been operating in North and South Dakota and Minnesota.

With the arrest of Grist and Donald Hayes yesterday, who is being held at Little Falls, authorities believe they have broken up the gang.

Grist was arrested late yesterday near Breckenridge after having been traced from Leeds, N. D., by authorities in a chase that ended in an exciting race as the prisoner tried to outdistance authorities.

Three men who were with him, one of whom gave his name as John Weil, 28, of Milwaukee, are also held pending investigation.

The two men being held here are not thought to be implicated by police, who refuse to divulge their names.

Officials say Grist admitted stealing a Ford coupe and selling it in Leeds, and also say he has served time in Minnesota penal institutions. His home is in Little Falls.

Cass county, North Dakota and Clay county, Minnesota authorities co-operated in the capture.

Coolidge Favors Policy of Harding in Alaska

Washington, Sept. 1.—President Coolidge, although having temporarily put aside the matter of an Alaskan policy to take up more pressing problems, was declared by White House officials to be inclined toward adoption of the plans for development of that territory outlined by President Harding in his Seattle address.

The president feels that President Harding and the cabinet members who accompanied him on his Alaskan trip were given an excellent opportunity to study the problems of the territory that he hardly could do better than to accept their judgment and benefit by their experience.

In any event Mr. Coolidge, it was added, intends to do all within his power to encourage enterprises and investment of additional capital, and to provide such conditions as will afford the territory a larger population.

YOKOHAMA ON FIRE, MANY KILLED, 200 AMERICANS IN PERIL

SEVERE DAMAGE IS ALSO REPORTED FROM CITY OF TOKIO

SEVERE SHOCK RECORDED ON SEISMOGRAPHS IN LONDON AND AMERICA

(By United Press)

Osaka, Japan, Sept. 1.—Practically all of Japan was shaken violently for more than an hour by an earthquake of almost unprecedented power.

Severe damage was suffered in Tokio. Railway and telegraphic communication was dislocated.

FIRE ADDS TO EARTHQUAKE TERRORS

San Francisco, Sept. 1.—The Japanese city of Yokohama is on fire following an earthquake crash, according to a wireless dispatch received here today by the Radio Corporation of America from the Japanese radio station at Iwaaki.

The radiogram describing the fire was received by the Radio Corporation of America from Tomika, where the Japanese connection of the American corporation station is located.

The message said:

"A conflagration subsequent to a severe earthquake is going through Yokohama. Almost the entire city is in flames, with many casualties."

The Postal Cable company reports that the leg of its cable running to Japan from Guam is broken somewhere near Yokohama, and that transmission is being had through Manila to Shanghai and to Nagasaki. This route is badly congested, but it is expected that dispatches containing details of the earthquake which shook Japan with terrific violence will be moved through shortly to the United States.

Yokohama, a seaport of Japan, is the port city of Tokio. It is the center of western business and social activities in Japan. Its population amounts to nearly a million. It is situated on the eastern shore of Hon-do on the bay of Tokio, 17 miles from the imperial palace.

AMERICAN COLONY IN ILL FATED CITY

Washington, Sept. 1.—There are about 200 Americans in Yokohama, swept by an earthquake and fire, the State Department officials estimated today. Although there are sometimes as many as a thousand, in the summer many of them go to the mountains.

Most of the Americans are engaged in business in Tokio and live in Yokohama. The government was without advices today whether any of the Americans were victims of the disaster.

London, Sept. 1.—An exceptional shock of earthquake was recorded by private seismographs at 4 o'clock this morning here. The quake originated about 5,500 miles from London, it was estimated.

TERRIFIC EARTHQUAKE SHOCK IS RECORDED

Cleveland, O., Sept. 1.—Records of a terrific earthquake continued from 10:23 p. m. to 1:20 a. m. were shown on the seismographs of the St. Ignace college, it was announced by Prof. F. L. Odenbach, observer.

The location of the quake could not be determined, but indications were that it occurred somewhere among the islands off the coast of Asia.

Chicago, Sept. 1.—Chicago fight fans will travel to the Dempsey-Firpo fight at New York in a special train scheduled to leave here the morning of Sept. 13, with arrival set in New York for the following morning.

If Winter Comes

Each slight change of the weather now indicates the approach of winter. And then what? Rheumatism, colds, coughs, constipation and pneumonia. Why not forestall these ailments by taking Chiropractic Spinal Adjustments now. Get the spine in line and you will withstand the severest winter changes. Dis-ease is due to the inability of the body to adapt itself to the sudden changes of its surroundings. This in turn is due to pinched nerves which prevent a full and natural expression of some of the life forces. "To be forewarned is to be forearmed." Consultations, spinal analysis and booklets free.

MRS. ALEX RUTTGER DIED

Wife of Proprietor of Ruttger Resort at Bay Lake Passed Away in Minneapolis

Mrs. Alex Ruttger, wife of the proprietor of the Ruttger resort on Bay Lake, and well known to many Brainerd people, died in Minneapolis on Wednesday, death resulting from diabetes, from which she had been suffering for the past four years. She was taken to Minneapolis for treatment the first of the week.

Minnie Marsh was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Marsh, of Aitkin. She was born in Hutchinson, on December 6th, 1894, coming to Aitkin with her parents while still a very little girl.

She graduated from the Aitkin schools in 1912 and taught for several years following. She was married to A. J. Ruttger on May 23rd, 1920 and has since made her home at the Ruttger summer resort.

Beside her husband and parents, the deceased is survived by four brothers, Melvin of Florida, Sherald, Wallace and Russell, all of Aitkin.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Ruttger home at Bay Lake on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. E. A. Cooke of Brainerd officiating, assisted by Rev. James A. Geer of Aitkin. Interment will be made in the Bay Lake cemetery.

The new standard for all tests of the different ranks, Tenderfoot, Second Class and First Class, has been worked out and on and after Sept. 1st will be in effect.

General approval has been expressed by those who have seen them, and the new forms will give a definite standard for advancement from one rank to another, and each scout, whatever his troop, will have met the same requirement interpretation.

The first class help is in folder form entitled "Certificate of Fitness for First Class Examination," and will be given to each scout as soon as he has qualified on the required standard for second class scout. As soon as he has met the requirements of the First Class subjects and, his certificate has been certified by the scout executive, he can then present himself at the formal session of the Court of Honor and be presented with his First Class insignia.

When he is able to present this certificate that shows he is prepared in ALL of the first class requirements, and has been able to pass a review of previous subjects, his first class badge will mean much more to him and that he is actually what he should be when he reads the scout motto on the scroll of the badge—"Be Prepared."

The advantages of a standard of advancement are many. Some of them are:

1. A standard for all troops.
2. Scout must be actually "prepared" in order to be promoted.
3. Strengthening the troops influence through closer relationship with scoutmaster and troop officials in preparation for advancement.
4. Scout has record of what he has done, furnishing incentive for better planning of his work, and avoiding possible argument due to error in records.
5. Avoiding difference in troop and headquarters records.

IMPROVING LIVESTOCK

THOSE who cooperated in focusing attention on the value of well-bred livestock did a good thing for Crow Wing county. There is often a tendency to discount the advantages that come from improvements either in methods or in quality. There are farmers who conclude that their practical experience on the land so far outweighs the information of agricultural experts that their advice is not worth considering, while others, after comparing the price of well-bred stock with that of scrub cattle, come to the conclusion that they will do as well, all things considered, with the mediocre stock. Only experiments and the evidence obtained from these will convince such men that they are mistaken.

Business men in Brainerd are taking more interest in agriculture and agriculturists and by encouraging the planting of alfalfa plots and the introduction of well-bred stock they are providing the evidence which will carry its conviction to even those who have refused to listen to verbal statements of the advantage of growing alfalfa and building up a high-grade herd. By introducing well-bred cattle and planting alfalfa plots, farmers are afforded evidence which they may see, and having seen just what these mean to their neighbors they will be influenced through opinions and statistics would not carry conviction.

Those in Brainerd, banks, clubs and merchants, who are co-operating for the purpose of securing such valuable ends are conferring a favor on the farmers, building up the resources of the county and by their forward-looking policy they are guaranting prosperity for those who choose to live on the farms of the county and, indirectly, to the people of the city of Brainerd whose interests are bound up with those of the farmer population of the county.

BRD. JUVENILE BAND'S DEBUT

Plays Labor Day at the Taylor Farm
Near Mission in First Public
Appearance

DIRECTION OF HUGO PFLOCK

Lads Have Been Practicing Twice a
Week and Reveal Splendid
Talent

The Brainerd Juvenile Band will make its first public appearance on Labor Day, being invited to help make the farmers picnic to be held at the Taylor farm near Mission, a real success.

The boys under the direction of Hugo Plock, have been studying hard and are able to play quite a number of rather difficult selections. Only intensive practice has been able to accomplish results that warrant this early public appearance.

Most of the boys did not play anything on their chosen instruments when rehearsals started June first. That they are very much interested in their organization is shown by the fact that only one of them has dropped out since the band was organized.

The boys have been practicing twice a week, on Tuesday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A., and on Friday mornings out-of-doors, near Boom lake.

Mr. Plock hopes that with the right spirit and interest shown by Brainerd citizens in standing behind this youthful organization, the band will become a big success, one in which the city may feel a just pride. The boys are asked to meet at 10 o'clock Monday morning at the Y. M. C. A. to go together to the picnic. Arrangements have been made for transportation and for dinner at the picnic.

REMOVE ADENOID OF 25 CHILDREN

The county school nurse, Miss Ingebritson, and Dr. Nordin and Dr. Nelson of Brainerd, were at the Pequot school Thursday and performed about 25 operations on school children for the removal of adenoids and tonsils. Several other children were operated on Monday. Each child provided his own cot, and remained over night at the school house, the County Nurse with the assistance of Miss Michael, the Brainerd nurse, looked after the patients.

Farewell Party

A farewell party was given Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Erick Anderson, in honor of Mrs. Anna Osterlund, who is leaving for Minneapolis to make her future home.

A large number of her friends were present, and enjoyed a very pleasant evening. The time was spent informally, with a dainty luncheon served by the hostess at 10 o'clock.

A number of Aitkin people drove to Brainerd Sunday to hear the concert given there by the Shrine band and Chanters of Minneapolis—Aitkin Independent Age.

COUNTY FATHERS

IN SESSION TODAY

Decisive Action Taken on Improving
the Pelican Lake
Highway

CON. O'BRIEN ADVANCES $500

Civic & Commerce Association to Repay Him When Budget
is Completed

The county commissioners are in session today, with much business to dispose of. One of the important matters under consideration is the proposed road along the south shore of Pelican lake, from Breezy Point to Merrifield. This road is badly in need of improvement and local business men are much interested in such a movement.

The commissioners have stated that the county will give one thousand dollars to this road's improvement if an equal amount can be raised outside. Several of the townships through which the road passes are making up $500, and Mayor Con O'Brien is advancing $500, which is to be paid back to him by the Civic and Commerce Association when that organization's budget has been raised.

With two thousand dollars it is planned to brush out and widen the road, grading it and cutting out a number of bad curves along the lake shore. This will give residents on the south and west shore of Pelican lake and those who live at Breezy Point a short cut to Brainerd, which will save about five miles over other roads now in use between these points.

By introducing well-bred cattle and planting alfalfa plots, farmers are afforded evidence which they may see, and having seen just what these mean to their neighbors they will be influenced through opinions and statistics would not carry conviction.

Those in Brainerd, banks, clubs and merchants, who are co-operating for the purpose of securing such valuable ends are conferring a favor on the farmers, building up the resources of the county and by their forward-looking policy they are guaranting prosperity for those who choose to live on the farms of the county and, indirectly, to the people of the city of Brainerd whose interests are bound up with those of the farmer population of the county.

BRO. JUVENILE BAND'S DEBUT

Plays Labor Day at the Taylor Farm
Near Mission in First Public
Appearance

DIRECTION OF HUGO PFLOCK

Lads Have Been Practicing Twice a
Week and Reveal Splendid
Talent

The Brainerd Juvenile Band will make its first public appearance on Labor Day, being invited to help make the farmers plenty to be held at the Taylor farm near Mission, a real success.

The boys under the direction of Hugo Pflock, have been studying hard and are able to play quite a number of rather difficult selections. Only intensive practice has been able to accomplish results that warrant this early public appearance.

Most of the boys did not play anything on their chosen instruments when rehearsals started June first. That they are very much interested in their organization is shown by the fact that only one of them has dropped out since the band was organized.

The boys have been practicing twice a week, on Tuesday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A., and on Friday mornings out-of-doors, near Boom lake.

Mr. Pflock hopes that with the right spirit and interest shown by Brainerd citizens in standing behind this youthful organization, the band will become a big success, one in which the city may feel a just pride.

The boys are asked to meet at 10 o'clock Monday morning at the Y. M. C. A. to go together to the picnic. Arrangements have been made for transportation and for dinner at the picnic.

REMOVE ADENOID OF 25 CHILDREN

The county school nurse, Miss Ingelbritson, and Dr. Nordin and Dr. Nelson of Brainerd, were at the Pelican school Thursday and performed about 25 operations on school children for the removal of adenoids and tonsils. Several other children were operated on Monday. Each child provided his own cot, and remained over night at the school house, the County Nurse with the assistance of Miss Michael, the Brainerd nurse, looked after the patients.

Farewell Party

A farewell party was given Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Erick Anderson, in honor of Mrs. Anna Osterlund, who is leaving for Minneapolis to make her future home.

A large number of her friends were present, and enjoyed a very pleasant evening. The time was spent informally, with a dainty luncheon served by the hostess at 10 o'clock.

A number of Aitkin people drove to Brainerd Sunday to hear the concert given there by the Shrine band and Chanters of Minneapolis—Aitkin Independent Age.

COUNTY FATHERS IN SESSION TODAY

Decisive Action Taken on Improving
the Pelican Lake
Highway

CON. O'BRIEN ADVANCES $500

Civic & Commerce Association to Repay Him When Budget
is Completed

The county commissioners are in session today, with much business to dispose of. One of the important matters under consideration is the proposed road along the south shore of Pelican lake, from Breezy Point to Merrifield. This road is badly in need of improvement and local business men are much interested in such a movement.

The commissioners have stated that the county will give one thousand dollars to this road's improvement if an equal amount can be raised outside. Several of the townships through which the road passes are making up $500, and Mayor Con O'Brien is advancing $500, which is to be paid back to him by the Civic and Commerce Association when that organization's budget has been raised.

With two thousand dollars it is planned to brush out and widen the road, grading it and cutting out a number of bad curves along the lake shore. This will give residents on the south and west shore of Pelican lake and those who live at Breezy Point a short cut to Brainerd, which will save about five miles over other roads now in use between these points.

Miss Katherine O'Leary was up from Brainerd Friday. She states that she is to demonstrate bread baking at the State Fair again this year. This will make her third year.

Miss Agnes Monson is another of the girls who entered the bread-baking contest, and she is to go down to the State Fair also. The girls will leave on September 3rd.

FINE PROGRAM FOR LABOR DAY

To be Held at Lum Park Under Direction of the City Park
Board

MUNICIPAL BAND WILL PLAY

Doll Baby Parade, Water Sports
Life Saving Demonstration,
Horseshoe Tournament

Monday is Labor Day, and will be observed locally with a fine program at Lum park, under the direction of the park board. All stores and business houses are closing for the day, so that it will be a real holiday.

Many families are planning to take their dinners to the park and spend the entire day in an outing there. The real program of the day begins early in the afternoon. The Brainerd Municipal Band will give a concert. Dancing will begin at four and continue until six o'clock.

One of the features of the afternoon will be the doll baby parade, starting at the pavilion swinging around the park and back to the starting point. Ten dollars in prizes are to be given for the most attractively decorated doll and buggy.

Numerous prizes will also be given in the water sports, for men and women, boys and girls. Charles Swindells has offered to give practical demonstrations in life saving and under water swimming. Mr. Swindells is an expert swimmer and promises to put on a very interesting and instructive program along this line.

A horseshoe tournament, in which fifteen dollars is to be divided in prizes, has been arranged and will attract local enthusiasts.

The Julewood orchestra will furnish the music for the dancing, both in the afternoon and evening, and prizes will be given at each dance. It is planned to have a band concert in the evening also.

Another Labor Day event which will attract many, will be the golf tournament at the local county club house, in which Brainerd and Little Falls will contest for supremacy. Little Falls won over the locals in a tournament early in the season, and it is hoped that the tables will be turned on Monday.

CAPTAIN JACK O'CONNELL

Vancouver Man, Claiming to Have Traveled With Buffalo Bill, to Open Shooting Gallery

Brainerd has a most interesting character in the person of Captain Jack O'Connell, of Vancouver, B. C., a totally deaf man claiming world-wide reputation, having traveled the world over with the late Col. W. F. Cody, better known as "Buffalo Bill" and his renowned Wild West Shows.

Capt. Jack, as he is affectionately known by thousands of his friends, will open a mechanical shooting gallery directly opposite the city hall in the Gardner block tonight.

Captain Jack O'Donnell

Here he hopes to meet all red-blooded men and women of the open air. He has no time, he says, for "Mollycoddles" and "Mama sissy boys" who "wear their shoes out prancing around pool tables in preference to a hike in the fall woods."

The Captain, by the way, has a very fine collection of expensive guns and pistols, all presented to him in recognition of his remarkable skill with fire arms.

Of Buffalo Bill, Capt. Jack can tell much. He has many personal letters and photos from this famous character. A tattered American flag will be on display that has passed in parade before millions and for which $150 has been refused. It bears the signatures of many of the world's most famous men and women.

NOTICE

Sealed bids will be received by the undersigned until Sept. 8, to remove old paint and repaint school house in district 57, two coats. Board reserves right to reject any or all bids.

BIG ENROLLMENT AT HIGH SCHOOL

This is Also Predicted in All Grade Buildings of the City of Brainerd

REGISTRATION DAYS SEPT. 1-3

Many Noticeable Changes and Improvements in Various School Buildings

From the registrations that are coming in, the Brainerd high school will have a record enrollment when school opens at nine o'clock Tuesday morning. This also predicted in all of the grade buildings of the city, where added facilities in the line of classrooms have been arranged.

Today and Monday are designated as registration days in the high school. Most of the children of the city who are entering the high school as freshmen this year, made the necessary arrangements last spring. But those who did not, and the children from the rural communities are making their registrations today and Monday.

Last year there was an enrollment of 427, an increase of fifty over the previous year. It is expected that a similar increase will be seen in the 1923 enrollment.

Students will find, when they enter the high school on Tuesday morning, that many noticeable changes have been made in the Washington building. All of the lower grades have been removed from this building, and only the eighth, mixed grades and high school will be housed there.

Another stairway has been built from the third floor of the building to the first. This new stairway passes through the assembly room, so that students going to classes either on the first or third floors, may do so without congesting the main stairways.

The third floor has been entirely remodeled. In addition to the large gymnasium, there will be two classrooms on this floor. The gymnasium has been lathed and plastered, and will be appropriately decorated.

In most of the grade schools of the city additional class rooms have been fitted up in anticipation of increased enrollments. Panic doors are to be installed in all buildings. These doors will open easily from the inside from a slight pressure upon them, even though they are locked from the outside.

There will be many new faces in the personnel of the faculty this year. While many of last year's instructors are returning this year, still with the additional teachers that will be employed and the several changes made, the faculty will vary widely from last year's.

It is hoped that a complete list of all teachers in the city schools will be available early next week for publication. This list is not complete as yet, a number of changes may be even at this late date, and several additional instructors employed if the enrollment makes it necessary.

SPORTS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Sept. 1.—With the exception of boxing, sport encountered a noticeable mid-summer slump, if attendance figures are an indication of general interest.

Interest perhaps is regulated by the public pocketbook, and boxing around New York has taken so much money this summer. It may be that there is the same old interest in the other sports, but no cash to indulge in them.

Perhaps it is not general all over the country, but New York certainly is not turning out for baseball, track and tennis as it did last year and there must be a reason.

Presidents of the National and American Leagues reported that business was better than ever in the first half of the season, but since then the attendance at the New York parks has decreased noticeably.

The Yankee Stadium, the biggest baseball plant in the world, has been filled twice this season and the newly enlarged Polo Grounds have been loaded to capacity only once. New Yorkers find it very unusual to go to a Sunday contest around game-time and be able to find a good seat.

The Giants, on their last western trip, made a new record for drawn customers, but considering that the champions are regarded as one of the greatest of all ball clubs and that the opportunities to see them are limited out of New York, this is not unusual.

When they fail to draw at home and when the great Babe Ruth, going as he never went before, does not crowd that Yank park, it is highly unusual. Some blame the runaway races, but from New York's attitude to accept nothing but a winner in the past, it should be expected that the two champion New York teams should be doing a terrific business.

The radio cannot be blamed, as the club owners have seen to it particularly that no broad-casting concerns are allowed near enough to a ball park to give a play-by-play description of the games.

Baseball men blame the boxing craze and the use of ball parks for fighting as one of the most responsible causes for the slump in interest. It is quite possible that action will be taken this winter to close all major league parks to boxing.

Ben Turpin Rides in Sennett Picture

"Don't ever say ostrich or camel to me again. I might walk a mile for a cigarette or buy my wife an ostrich plume, but that is as near as I ever want to get to either of them again," says Ben Turpin, screen comedian, in telling of his experiences in "The Shriek of Araby." Mack Sennett's latest burlesque feature, an Allied Producers and Distributors Corporation release coming to the New Park on Monday only (Labor Day).

Vaudeville at the New Park Tonight and Sunday

In conjunction with the Big Special Picture program for tonight and Sunday at the New Park the management has secured a very good vaudeville act in "Jack Cole's Harmony Trio." Three very good singers and dancers. This will be a treat for lovers of harmony and good dancing. Regular prices will prevail.

Agnes Ayres Wins Again

There are plenty of things for the heroine to get morbid over in "A Daughter of Luxury." Agnes Ayres' new Paramount picture which had a highly successful showing at the Lyceum theatre last night, but Miss Ayres treats the embarrassing situations in which she finds herself with a keen sense of humor, and thereby makes possible some winning comedy.

HARRY GREB WINS MIDDLEWEIGHT TITLE

GETS JUDGE'S DECISION AFTER 15 ROUNDS OF ROUGH FIGHTING

New York, Sept. 1.—Harry Greb, Pittsburgh "wind mill," who has been knocking at the championship portals with varied success for a number of years, last night dethroned Johnny Wilson of Boston, as the world's middleweight titleholder.

Outfighting his opponent in nearly every round, Greb received the judge's verdict after 15 rounds that for the most part proved considerably below championship standard.

Wilson Weakened

Taking the aggressive from the start, Greb pummeled the champion relentlessly about the head and body. He weakened Wilson in the fifth with a series of right jolts to the jaw and had the champion in distress in both the eighth and ninth rounds with a slashing attack to the head. But Wilson, blocked in most of his offensive attempts and finding the Pittsburgher a shifty and elusive target, fought back gamely. He stood up under a heavy bombardment in the last four rounds with his left eye virtually closed and with blood dripping from cuts about his mouth.

Worked on Body

Wilson's attack was directed chiefly to Greb's body and at times he seemed to hurt the challenger with short left hooks to the ribs and stomach, but Greb inevitably checked his opponent by blocking and maneuvering. In the twelfth and thirteenth rounds Wilson showed a few flashes of championship form but they were only momentary. Puzzled by the opponent's methods, he invariably stayed on the defensive or lost opportunities to shoot over effective punches by his slowness.

Bout is Rough

Greb's rough tactics and Wilson's apparent inability to display any effective sort of attack marred many of the rounds. Greb was warned repeatedly for holding in the clinches while he swung his right to Wilson's head and body and on one or two occasions he was booed by the crowd for his unfairness. Wilson, however, was also guilty of rough work, but he usually was worsted in these attempts to meet Greb at the latter's own game.

Neither fighter scored the semblance of a knockout during the entire fight. Once, in an early round Greb slipped to the floor after missing a wild swing but he was up quickly and drove Wilson to the ropes with a shower of rights and lefts.

A crowd estimated by promoters at 12,000, the smallest that has attended a championship fight this summer, witnessed Wilson's fall, the fourth match of the season in which world's titles have changed hands.

Largest Set Ever Seen in Pictures

The largest indoor set in the history of motion pictures!

That's what is claimed for the huge prehistoric forest which forms the background for the "somewhat different" cave-man sequence of "Adam's Rib," the new Cecil B. De Mille Paramount picture which features Milton Sills, Elliott Dexter, Theodore Kosloff, Anna Q. Nilsson and Pauline Garon, and which will be the big feature at the Lyceum Sunday.

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Sept. 1.—With the exception of boxing, sport encountered a noticeable mid-summer slump, if attendance figures are an indication of general interest.

Interest perhaps is regulated by the public pocketbook, and boxing around New York has taken so much money this summer. It may be that there is the same old interest in the other sports, but no cash to indulge in them.

Perhaps it is not general all over the country, but New York certainly is not turning out for baseball, track and tennis as it did last year and there must be a reason.

Presidents of the National and American Leagues reported that business was better than ever in the first half of the season, but since then the attendance at the New York parks has decreased noticeably.

The Yankee Stadium, the biggest baseball plant in the world, has been filled twice this season and the newly enlarged Polo Grounds have been loaded to capacity only once. New Yorkers find it very unusual to go to a Sunday contest around game-time and be able to find a good seat.

The Giants, on their last western trip, made a new record for drawn customers, but considering that the champions are regarded as one of the greatest of all ball clubs and that the opportunities to see them are limited out of New York, this is not unusual.

When they fail to draw at home and when the great Babe Ruth, going as he never went before, does not crowd that Yank park, it is highly unusual.

Some blame the runaway races, but from New York's attitude to accept nothing but a winner in the past, it should be expected that the two champion New York teams should be doing a terrific business.

The radio cannot be blamed, as the club owners have seen to it particularly that no broad-casting concerns are allowed near enough to a ball park to give a play-by-play description of the games.

Baseball men blame the boxing craze and the use of ball parks for fighting as one of the most responsible causes for the slump in interest. It is quite possible that action will be taken this winter to close all major league parks to boxing.

Ben Turpin Rides in Sennett Picture

"Don't ever say ostrich or camel to me again. I might walk a mile for a cigarette or buy my wife an ostrich plume, but that is as near as I ever want to get to either of them again," says Ben Turpin, screen comedian, in telling of his experiences in "The Shriek of Araby," Mack Sennett's latest burlesque feature, an Allied Producers and Distributors Corporation release coming to the New Park on Monday only (Labor Day).

Vaudeville at the New Park Tonight and Sunday

In conjunction with the Big Special Picture program for tonight and Sunday at the New Park the management has secured a very good vaudeville act in "Jack Cole's Harmony Trio." Three very good singers and dancers. This will be a treat for lovers of harmony and good dancing. Regular prices will prevail.

Agnes Ayres Wins Again

There are plenty of things for the heroine to get morbid over in "A Daughter of Luxury," Agnes Ayres' new Paramount picture which had a highly successful showing at the Lyceum theatre last night, but Miss Ayres treats the embarrassing situations in which she finds herself with a keen sense of humor, and thereby makes possible some winning comedy.

RAMON NOVARRO

Ramon Novarro, Rex Ingram's role in Rex Ingram's production for screen find who has won the theatre-goer's plaudits for his exceptionally fine performances in "The Prisoner of Zenda" and "Trifling Women," who settled in Durango, one of the and who is playing the leading male prosperous states of Mexico.

GETS JUDGE'S DECISION AFTER 15 ROUNDS OF ROUGH FIGHTING

New York, Sept. 1.—Harry Greb, Pittsburgh "wind mill," who has been knocking at the championship portals with varied success for a number of years, last night dethroned Johnny Wilson of Boston, as the world's middleweight titleholder.

Outfighting his opponent in nearly every round, Greb received the judge's verdict after 15 rounds that for the most part proved considerably below championship standard.

Wilson Weakened

Taking the aggressive from the start, Greb pummeled the champion relentlessly about the head and body. He weakened Wilson in the fifth with a series of right jolts to the jaw and had the champion in distress in both the eighth and ninth rounds with a slashing attack to the head. But Wilson, blocked in most of his offensive attempts and finding the Pittsburgher a shifty and elusive target, fought back gamely. He stood up under a heavy bombardment in the last four rounds with his left eye virtually closed and with blood dripping from cuts about his mouth.

Worked on Body

Wilson's attack was directed chiefly to Greb's body and at times he seemed to hurt the challenger with short left hooks to the ribs and stomach, but Greb inevitably checked his opponent by blocking and maneuvering. In the twelfth and thirteenth rounds Wilson showed a few flashes of championship form but they were only momentary. Puzzled by the opponent's methods, he invariably stayed on the defensive or lost opportunities to shoot over effective punches by his slowness.

Bout is Rough

Greb's rough tactics and Wilson's apparent inability to display any effective sort of attack marred many of the rounds. Greb was warned repeatedly for holding in the clinches while he swung his right to Wilson's head and body and on one or two occasions he was booed by the crowd for his unfairness. Wilson, however, was also guilty of rough work, but he usually was worsted in these attempts to meet Greb at the latter's own game.

Neither fighter scored the semblance of a knockout during the entire fight. Once, in an early round Greb slipped to the floor after missing a wild swing but he was up quickly and drove Wilson to the ropes with a shower of rights and lefts.

A crowd estimated by promoters at 12,000, the smallest that has attended a championship fight this summer, witnessed Wilson's fall, the fourth match of the season in which world's titles have changed hands.

That's what is claimed for the huge prehistoric forest which forms the background for the "somewhat different" cave-man sequence of "Adam's Rib," the new Cecil B. De Mille Paramount picture which features Milton Sills, Elliott Dexter, Theodore Kosloff, Anna Q. Nilsson and Pauline Garon, and which will be the big feature at the Lyceum Sunday.
